Blue Christmas Service

Spring Hill United Methodist Church is happy to start providing a Blue Christmas service this year and into the future.

The service will be on Wednesday, December 1, 2021 @ 6:00 p.m. in the sanctuary of the church.

This year we are using the scripture: "The God who sees me." Genesis 16:13

There are many moments in our lives when we need comfort. There are tough times when we yearn for consolation. Like Hagar, during this season we are reminded our suffering, our pain, our blues, and our sadness is seen. God sees us, God sees you. The God who sees me, expresses the affirmation that no matter what happens to us, God will be there to comfort and support us. Christmas can be a time for many when we need that reassurance and comfort. In this season of Advent, like Hagar we remember in Jesus, Emanuel, God is with us!

Perhaps we are grieving the loss of a loved one (recent or long ago), struggling with an illness, experiencing the loss of a job or we may just be wondering how we will get through the holidays.

Those looking for comfort, hope, wholeness, or renewal are invited to join the pastors and congregation for a time of quiet reflection, meaningful words, and music. The design for this worship experience will use scripture, prayer, liturgy and a service of Holy Communion.

I hope you will join us for this special service. Please invite and bring other folks with you.
